THE MEDICINE OF PEACE with People Around the World

We invite you to share the benefits you've received from acupuncture with people who don't have access to this powerful Medicine of Peace...People who have experienced the trauma of natural disasters, environmental devastation, social injustice and human conflict. Your donation makes it possible for Acupuncturists Without Borders (AWB) to provide trauma healing treatments to:

- Veterans and their families
- Refugees in the U.S. and internationally
- Sexual and domestic violence survivors
- People displaced by natural disaster and climate change
- Communities affected by social, racial and economic inequality

AWB's mission is to bring healing, hope and empowerment to communities affected by natural disasters, environmental devastation and human conflict.

We do this by offering simple, yet powerful, ear acupuncture treatments to people who have experienced physical and emotional trauma...trauma that is often passed from one generation to another, devastating individuals, communities and nations. AWB is committed to collaboration, community empowerment, and sustainability which is why we train licensed acupuncturists and other health professionals to offer treatments in their own communities. Since its creation after Hurricane Katrina in 2005, AWB has provided millions of ear acupuncture treatments around the world and trained over 3,500 acupuncturists in the U.S. and internationally. AWB trained volunteers have:

- Provided over 25,000 treatments after dozens of U.S. disasters.
- Established over 30 community service clinics in 24 states offering over 40,000 free treatments annually to veterans, refugees, sexual violence survivors, and people without financial resources.
- Created ongoing trauma healing programs in Nepal, Haiti, Israel and the West Bank.
- Participated in international disaster relief and training projects in Nepal, Chile, New Zealand, Japan, Haiti, Mongolia, Mexico, India, Israel and the West Bank.

In 2016, AWB is bringing the Medicine of Peace to refugees in the U.S., Europe and Middle East, and is collaborating with organizations in the U.S. to bring trauma healing to people affected by racial and economic injustice.

Your tax-deductible donation makes a big impact:

- $10 provides a treatment for a U.S. veteran
- $25 covers 3 treatments for refugees in Europe
- $100 buys enough supplies for 200 treatments
- $250 enables AWB to train a local health practitioner to do treatments

Please donate by completing an AWB donation form in your acupuncturist's office. To learn more about AWB's trauma healing programs visit our website at
